Northern United FC Privacy Policy

Adopted April 04, 2022

PRIVACY POLICY Purpose

1. Northern United FC's Privacy Policy is governed by the BC Personal Information Protection Act ("PIPA"), and describes the way that NUFC collects, uses, and discloses personal information of third parties in the course of its activities, implementing NUFC's commitment to collect, use and disclose personal information responsibly. The NUFC's Privacy Policy is based on the standards required by PIPA, and NUFC's interpretation of these responsibilities. To the extent that the provisions in this Privacy Policy are inconsistent with PIPA, PIPA's requirements shall govern.
2. A copy of Northern United FC's (NUFC)s Policy is available upon request to NUFC.
3. This policy deals with personal information about players, parents, fans, directors, officials, coaches and other volunteers.

Personal Information

4. Personal information is information about an identifiable individual and includes information that relates to their personal characteristics (e.g., gender, age, income, home address or phone number, ethnic background, family status), their health (e.g., health history, health conditions, health services received by them), their competitive performance or their activities and views (e.g., religion, politics, opinions expressed by an individual, an opinion or evaluation of an individual). Personal information, however, does not include business contact information (e.g., an individual's business address and telephone number), which is not protected by PIPA.

Accountability

5. The Registration Officer of NUFC is responsible for the organization's handling of personal information and ensuring that all staff receives appropriate training on privacy issues. The Registration Officer also handles personal information access requests and complaints. The Registration Officer may be contacted at the following address:

Soccer Association. NUFC also reports certain personal information to the various government- related agencies (such as Sport BC) which provide funding for NUFC programs, as may be required by those agencies in connection with such funding.

8. If a purpose has not been identified herein, NUFC will seek consent from individuals when personal information is collected, used or disclosed for a purpose not already consented to. This consent will be documented as to when and how it was received.

Consent

9. NUFC will obtain any required consent by lawful means from individuals at the time of direct collection, prior to the use or disclosure of the personal information. If the consent to the collection, use or disclosure was not obtained upon receipt of the information, consent will be obtained prior to the use or disclosure of that information. Prior to or as part of obtaining this NUFC Privacy Policy, NUFC will disclose to individuals the purpose for which the personal information is to be collected, used or disclosed.
10. NUFC may collect, use, or disclose personal information without consent where reasonable to do so and where permitted under PIPA or by law. Without limiting the foregoing, NUFC may collect, use or disclose personal information in circumstances including the following:
 - a. Personal information is collected by observation of a public sporting event at which the person appears voluntarily
 - b. The information is necessary to determine an individual's suitability for an athletic position, standing or ranking
 - c. The information is necessary to determine an individual's suitability for an honour, award or similar benefit, including a scholarship or bursary,
 - d. The collection, use or disclosure is necessary for the medical treatment of the individual and the individual is unable to give consent, or
 - e. Where the collection, use, or disclosure of the information is clearly in the interests of the individual and consent cannot be obtained in a timely way

11. By providing personal information to NUFC, and participating in its programs and activities, individuals are considered to have consented to the use of the information in the manner and for the purposes identified in this policy.
12. NUFC will not, as a condition of a product or service, require an individual to consent to the collection, use or disclosure of information beyond that required to fulfill the specified purpose.
13. An individual may withdraw consent to the collection, use or disclosure of personal information at any time, subject to legal or contractual restrictions. NUFC will advise the individual of the implications of such withdrawal. Depending on the circumstances, if consent is withdrawn the individual may not be able to continue their participation in certain programs and activities of NUFC.

Limiting Collection

14. All personal information will be collected fairly, by lawful means and for the purposes as specified in this policy or as specified at the time of collection. NUFC will not use any form of deception to obtain personal information.

Limiting Use, Disclosure and Retention

15. Personal information will not be used or disclosed by NUFC for purposes other than those for which it was collected or as provided herein, except with the consent of the individual or as required or permitted by law.
16. Information disclosed to a third party with consent from the individual will be protected by appropriate arrangements with the third party to limit use and disclosure.
17. Personal information will be retained for a minimum of one year after its last use by NUFC. After that time, information will be retained for such further periods as may be appropriate and necessary for the business purposes of NUFC pursuant to best practices and standards, or as required by law, after which time it will be securely destroyed or erased in accordance with NUFC's internal records policies and procedures.

18. NUFC will use accurate and up-to-date information as is necessary for the purposes for which it is to be used, to minimize the possibility that inappropriate information may be used to make a decision about an individual. As indicated above, NUFC relies on local teams, Clubs, Leagues and Districts for the accuracy of information collected by them and remitted to NUFC.

Safeguards

19. NUFC is obligated to protect personal information by making reasonable security arrangements against such risks as unauthorized access, loss, copying, theft, collection, use, disclosure or disposal. Personal information is protected by security safeguards appropriate to the sensitivity of the information. Methods of protection and safeguards include, but are not limited to, locked filing cabinets, restricted access to offices, security clearances, need-to-know access and technological measures including the use of passwords, encryption and firewalls.

Openness

20. NUFC will make available on request information about its policies and practices relating to the management of personal information. This information is available through NUFC's web site or upon request by contacting the Registration Officer.

21. The information available to the public includes:

- a. The name or title, address and telephone number of NUFC's Privacy Officer.
- b. The forms that may be used to access personal information or change information.
- c. A description of the type of personal information held by NUFC, including a general statement of its approved uses.
- d. A copy of any brochures or other information that explain the organization's policies, standards, or codes; and NUFC Privacy Policy
- e. Contact information regarding other organizations such as Canadian Interuniversity Sport and Canadian Centre for Ethics in Sport to which NUFC may disclose personal information in its custody or control

Individual Access

22. Subject to PIPA and all applicable laws, upon written request, and with assistance from NUFC, an individual may be informed of the existence, use and disclosure of his or her personal information and may be given access to that information. As well, an individual may be entitled to be informed of the source of the personal information along with an account of third parties to whom the information has been disclosed unless this information shall or may not be disclosed by law.
23. Requested information will be disclosed to the individual within 30 days of receipt of the written request at no cost to the individual, or at nominal costs relating to photocopying expenses, unless there are reasonable grounds to extend the time limit.
24. If nominal fees will be charged for the production of personal information under NUFC's control, the organization will provide the applicant with a written estimate of the fee prior to providing the information.
25. If personal information is inaccurate or incomplete, it will be amended as required. An individual may request correction of his or her personal information that is under the custody or control of NUFC. Subject to reasonable cost and timeliness, if appropriate NUFC will correct the information within 30 days of receiving a written request in the approved form. If corrections are not made, NUFC will annotate the personal information under its control, indicating that the correction was requested but not made.
26. An individual may be denied access to his or her personal information if:
 - a. This information is prohibitively costly to provide;
 - b. The information contains references to other individuals;
 - c. The information cannot be disclosed for legal, security or commercial proprietary purposes;
 - d. The information is subject to solicitor-client or litigation privilege;
 - e. The law otherwise requires or permits the information not to be disclosed.
27. Upon refusal, NUFC will inform the individual the reasons for the refusal and the associated provisions of PIPA.
